New Concord Flirts With Local Concern as Result of Shut-Down

In an effort to relieve and, if possible, end further suffering which was widespread yesterday as a result of the gas famine, the Chamber of Commerce made its first formal appearance in the controversy.

President George M. Gray declared last evening to a reporter for The Morning Tribune that the Chamber of Commerce had never entered into political controversies or controversies which had a political bearing, and that it was not his purpose to do so now, but in view of the actual suffering of the last 48 hours he deemed it the duty of his organization to try and effect a compromise between the gas company and council.

Committee Named.
For this purpose he named a sub-committee from the Civic and Industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce which will meet this morning at 9 o'clock with members of council and representatives of the gas company. The committee is composed of T. L. Montgomery, chairman; M. D. Custer, W. S. Tibb, Fred Timmons and Louis Eremiel.

Big Fox Drive At Plainfield

Fox hunters of Plainfield have completed arrangements for a circle hunt to start promptly at 9 o'clock (sun time) Saturday morning. The hunters will set their numbers as soon as possible. They will not report to captains, but meet at the start line where full details will be given. All those participating will be given a free dinner. The hunt will start from the following line:

First line, North Side.
Lakin Dick's thence to Craig's, west to John Miller's corner. First line, West side—Miller's corner thence to Lanna thence to Cornions, First line, South side—Cornion, down road to Wills Creek thence up stream to Eliza Kinney's corner. First line, East side—Kinney's corner to Hugh Jones to Arnold Wilson's thence to Bluck's. The hunters will then move to a second line which will be managed by the captains of the chase. When the third line is reached they think they will have the foxes cornered in the valley of Bordenkircher's farm.

One dog will be loosed at a time and turned on a fox for a fox and dog fight for life. The dogs will be released according to number. Charles Kinney will issue the numbers. Further hunters will be furnished the hunters by Stephen Davis, Malachi Jones, W. J. Thompson and Vincent Bordenkircher.

Austria's New Head Eager For Peace to Come

LONDON, DEC. 13.—The Morning Post's Budapest correspondent quotes newspaper to show that Emperor Charles is signaling his accession to the throne with many acts of mercy. According to the Az Est, the emperor canceled the death sentence imposed on the Czech deputies, Dr. Kramarz and Here Kiofac, and others who were charged with trying to reconcile Russia and Bohemia, only excepting Prof. T. G. Masaryk, an Austrian deputy, who is now in London. Many political offenders in Hungary according to the Az Est, have been or will be pardoned, but the sentences of those who were convicted of adhering to countries enemy to Austria-Hungary, including thousands of Serbians, Italians and Poles, will be carried out.

The correspondent further quotes the Hungarian newspapers as saying that Emperor Charles is eager for peace at the earliest possible moment, desiring to devote his energies to alleviating the sufferings of his people and the rebuilding of the empire. It is said that he expressed this urgent desire to almost every one with whom he talked. The correspondent says the leaders of the independence party who are about to start a peace campaign in parliament regard the emperor's reported utterance as a valuable asset.

Can't Commit Matrimony For 3 Long Years

Judge Lemer, of Zanesville, in giving a divorce to Samuel Hazen, aged 51, of Adams Mills and Eliza Hazen, aged 71, of Roscoe decreed they must not attempt matrimony for three years.

The aged couple were married in Coshocton last April. Mrs. Hazen left her husband the following June. The divorce was given on a charge of wilful absence.

OHIO G. O. P. LEADERS IN CONFERENCE

COLUMBUS, DEC. 13.—Another call has gone forth to the nine members of the advisory council of the Republican party in Ohio. They are asked to gather at noon Friday at the Deshler hotel here.

The claim is made every member has promised to be present. In the former calls it has been impossible to get the members to come in. It is claimed here United States Senator Warren G. Harding has promised to be present Friday.

Coincident with the call it was learned the unpaid bills left at the end of the campaign are being paid.

There is a measure of interest in what form of permanent organization the committee may provide for the Republicans the next two years, and what group of men will be chosen to handle the organization and the publicity, to which careful attention will be given. Complaints have been made in the past that men ambitious for the position were party-men of certain candidates and would be more interested in their favorite than in the general rejuvenation of the party. There is no information as to what plan of procedure, if any, has been agreed to before the nine gathered. If the party would agree to gather and pass judgment.

The suggestion has existed from the first the nine might decide to let the state committee handle the work and the local committee to supersede the regular state organization. Former efforts to reorganize the party and former efforts to name special envoys to handle its affairs and disregard the state organization chosen in the regular way have been failures and have developed much bitterness.

It is considered practically certain the committee of nine will not countenance at this time any radical reorganization of the party machinery in the state, but will be expected to show an interest in the promotion of the party's interests preliminary to the next campaign.

The prevailing topic of discussion at the open meeting of the Coshocton Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening was the question of the shortage in the gas supply—the same which was discussed generally on the streets during the day.

Members of the organization were privileged to express their views in the matter. The most forcible remarks of the evening were made by T. J. Hanley who stated: "The individual interests of the contending sides make no difference to the people. The people do not care whether or not one side is victorious in politics, while the other makes increased profits. The public should be served with gas, while such a controversy as this goes on."

WASHINGTON, DEC. 13.—Chester H. Rowell, Republican state chairman in California, and a member of the Republican national campaign committee, gave the following statement to the press today:

"The press associations have carried a statement given out after a conference in Chicago last Monday attended by Harold Ickler, Gifford Pinchot, James R. Garfield, Raymond Robins, William Allen White and myself, in which we announced the intention of joining with others in calling a nationwide conference of Progressives and progressive Republicans within the next four months, to consider steps by which the organization of the Republican party could be made more representative of and responsive to its membership, and to organize the progressive element nationally and in the various states to exercise a more effective voice in the party affairs. Without seeking to commit either my colleagues, or any others who may subsequently wish to join in this movement, I may state some definite concrete steps, by which it may be possible to restore the Republic."

Issues Plea For Christmas Dinner

Letters are being sent out by the officers in charge of the Salvation Army, asking for donations on behalf of the poor, the proceeds to be used to help bakers with Christmas dinners. Mildred Douglass, Adjutant, has mailed the following letter:

Dear Friends:

Doubtless you will be interested to learn that we are proposing to give a Free Hot Christmas Dinner to the deserving poor.

On behalf of the poor we plead for help. We cannot conscientiously allow this happy Christmas season to pass without doing a little to brighten the lot of these unfortunate ones. Any assistance you can render in the shape of money, food or articles of clothing, shoes, toys, etc., will be thankfully received and distributed.

PHILADELPHIA, DEC. 13.—The cost of living is higher in the United States, which is at peace, than it is in England and France, which are at war.

This declaration is made by Charles Edward Russell, writing in The Public Ledger on prices of foodstuffs in this country and abroad.

"Meat is generally dearer in the United States, where it is produced, than in England, where it is imported, even in war times," writes Russell.

"Meat prices have not risen much in France since the war began. We have known meat prices to climb more in two years of peace in the United States than they have risen in two years of war in France."

In attempting to discover the reason for this condition, Russell discovered—

One Would Not Talk Peace Nor The Other War

PARIS, DEC. 13.—Eugene Grosclaude, the French journalist, devotes a second article in the Petit Parisien to the impressions he received on his recent visit to the United States to the subject of "Abrupt Peace and the United States." In recounting what he characterizes as the failure of German efforts to induce the American government to propose peace, M. Grosclaude reports the following incident as occurring during the visit of Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, to Rome, at his meeting at the Vatican with Cardinal Hartmann, archbishop of Cologne:

"As Cardinal Mercier was about to turn away, says the writer, Cardinal Hartmann, murmured to him, 'We will not speak of war.' To which Cardinal Mercier replied, 'We will not speak of peace.'"

M. Grosclaude reaches the conclusion that in America all German efforts to entangle the United States in premature peace proposals will prove futile.

Wilson Says Good Bout Is Coming Dec. 18

Jack Wilson, sporting editor of the Columbus Daily Monitor, says Bill Robertson has framed a good fight for Coshocton fans.

Here's what he writes about the bout:

"Jack Perry is going to perform for the Coshocton folks. The popular Columbus battler staked with Promotor Robertson of that place Monday evening for a 19-round bout there on December 18. 'Red' Hilton, Cleveland lightweight, is to be the opponent. Robertson is the 'Wee Willie' Robertson, former pitcher for the Memphis club. Jackie Moore is also on this card, agreeing to box 'Kid' Roux of Memphis in 10 rounds."

WAY TO BEAT HIGH C. OF L. IS EAT LESS

WASHINGTON, DEC. 13.—Government officials made it plain today that while they are conducting inquiries into the high cost of living and planning grand jury action against any who conspired to maintain prices, the principal remedies must come through economies and cooperation of the public. They recommended that persons buy as little food-stuffs as possible and seek cheap substitutes for high priced articles in many cases. Better methods of transporting necessities of living to consumers and increased production by farmers were other direct remedies suggested.

Department of justice officials continued, however, to study reports on the coal and food conditions, and President Wilson was giving these reports close attention. Closer secrecy was observed than heretofore to prevent information, which later may be given to grand juries, from reaching interests under surveillance.

The following is the opinion of a high German embassy as to what Germany's peace offer to the Entente will resolve itself into:

Teutons Offer—Restoration of Belgium; evacuation of land taken in France.
Teutons Suggest—Making Poland and Lithuania independent kingdoms.
Teutons Demand—Retention of Serbia by Austria-Hungary; restoration of land Bulgaria lost in second Balkan war; restoration of Austrian lands taken by Italy; return to Germany of colonies captured by foes; retention of Constantinople by Turkey.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 13.—President Wilson's course in connection with Germany's peace proposals remained undecided today while he awaited the official proffer which the central powers have asked the United States to transmit to their enemies. The impression grew, that while the president's first consideration was to safeguard his usefulness as a peace-maker by omitting any comment which might possibly be coupled with a rejection by the entente powers, there was a disposition to find some way, however delicate and informal, to intimate the sincere wish of the United States that some basis for discussion at least, might be reached. Many officials felt that an indication of the temper of the entente governments should be available before the influence of the United States was thrown into the balance.

The United States, by reason of its dual responsibility of representing the interest of most of the central powers and the entente governments in the capitals of their enemies, would of course become the medium of communication thru which any reply interests under surveillance.

STRADIVARA

"KNOWN FOR TONE"

Buyers of phonographs are depending less and less on association with big corporations and with individuals, and more and more on genuine musical worth.

A critical and personal investigation will convince you beyond the shadow of a doubt that it will pay you to buy the Stradivara because it is a more recent invention. It is the "last word" in musical instruments of the phonograph type. Do not confuse it with the ordinary talking machine.

A Vital Difference:—Instead of a cheap tin horn concealed in the cabinet, the Stradivara contains a scientifically built "tone chamber." This wonderful tone room has as its floor or foundation a genuine Norway Spruce Sound Board just like you find in a piano and violin. No metal is used in connection with it. The result is wonderful. Hear the Stradivara and be convinced!

Again:—Why buy an instrument that is built to play only one make of record? The Stradivara plays all records, and plays them all better than any other instrument can play them.

Don't take our word for it. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." Hear the Stradivara—examine critically its superior quality in every detail and you will never be satisfied with any other. It is the ideal Christmas Gift.

Might Get a Little More

In answer to this Mr. Smith said that he had not made the statement that there would not be more gas than there is at the present time, but that Coshocton cannot expect a greater supply than other towns in the state, which are paying the same price—and in many instances a higher rate.

D. G. Gayle, inquired of manager Smith what effect the removal of the injunction by council against the Gas Co. would have. If the company could make arrangements to furnish additional gas, in that event, Mr. Smith answered that even under the present conditions an effort is being made with the Ohio Gas and Fuel Co. to get an adequate supply.

M. H. McKinley remarked that in his opinion the Chamber should use its influence with council to dismiss the injunction against the gas company, as it appears that council, rather than the people were fighting for their rights. C. B. Hunt said that he agreed with Mr. McKinley in his suggestion; that the situation was a vital one for the company and the city and the longer the present conditions exist the more serious they become; that the matter should not be permitted to go into long drawn out litigation.

Mr. Hanley inquired of Judge Hunt how the matter could be taken out of the hands of council, and the Judge answered that it would necessitate impeaching all of the members.

A Christmas Present That Pays Dividends

One service we perform regularly at the holiday season for some of our older customers, is to supply them with good 7% preferred stocks in certificates of 1, 2, 3 or 5 shares, suitably issued, wrapped and prepared for presentation on Christmas day. There is no other Christmas present that affords so much permanent and repeated satisfaction as a good, dividend-paying investment.

The advice and enthusiasm of children crystallize around a share of stock, realizing that the foundation is often laid for a life-long habit of thrift and financial wisdom. Among the older members of the family, a present of this kind has often proved a first step that led on to the accumulation of a competence and a comfortable income in later life.

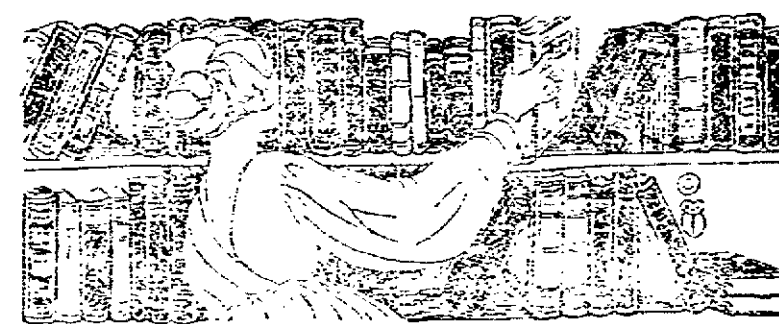

We will be glad to discuss this plan directly by mail or to arrange a personal interview for you with our local representative.

out of the city, with the single exception of the business manager, E. B. Smith, who, while a sensible and fair minded young man, is apparently helpless in the matter. The action taken surely should provoke the community to action, and prompt action. The matter should be taken out of the hands of those who are holding up the factories and depriving the citizens of their rights. They should act, and then discuss.

The Chamber of Commerce should assert itself at this time, as there seems to be no disposition on either side to adjust the differences. Even the courts should not stand in the way of necessary protection. As a body interested in the welfare of the community, the Chamber of Commerce should put the guilty people on the grill.

Would Increases Get Gas?

H. J. Harris inquired if there were anyone present at the meeting who could give the citizens the assurance that if the 30 cent rate be paid there would be an adequate supply of gas. E. B. Smith, manager of the Gas Co., answered that it was impossible to guarantee all the gas the consumers might want, but that the company would give their customers all that they themselves were able to get.

Mr. Hanley then suggested that since the gas company could not promise all the gas the city might need he that it advisable to make an immediate effort to change the plans of heating the homes, and that the gas proposition was practically a failure. Since the necessary service from the company could not be promised the people should not be encouraged in hoping for a solution to the difficult, since there might not be enough and that while meat is cheap in France, there are no financial "tricks" cut for the benefit of stockholders in packing houses. No firm has declared a stock dividend of $500,000. The American company did not declare for has any French stock in France, certainly not $25,000,000. In fact, the new pack for its stockholders with a 25 percent dividend which exactly pays for the stock, as did the Swift company recently.

Government Kille Animals.
The reason for the high prices and absence of "tricks" for packing house stockholders, according to Russell, is because in France the government kills all the surplus of meat and sends it to the army and for all corners. The French cattle raisers send their cattle to the government and the government kills them and the highest scientific conditions turns the meat over to the soldier, who can sell it only at a price fixed by the government.

As a result, Russell finds that in France there are no packing house problems or problems nobody can solve between producer and consumer, taking and doing both.

Good Meat Certain.
"Suppose, for instance, the government of Illinois was to announce all the meat slaughtering done in that state," writes Russell. "It would, of course, be the most sanitary slaughterhouse, under and follow the most scientific precautions, and carefully inspect all animals. It killed. We should then be sure we were getting meat from a healthy, vigorous and healthy animal. It would slaughter for all corners at cost, and the producers of the meat would send in their herds, assured that they would get the actual return without deductions for nation or stock losses. All retailers would get their meat at cost price and without discrimination, standing upon exactly the same footing.

Meatons Would Buy Plant.
"The amount of the meatons recently cut by two packing concerns in Chicago would provide the state with the greatest and best slaughtering establishment in the world. Under our present system, this money has been taken from producer and consumer. No one can suggest any return producer and consumer have had from it or ever will have—except the satisfaction of knowing how where it has gone to."

political organization to the confidence of the American people; that it still is short of possessing that confidence is notorious. The people learned in 1912 and to some extent in 1916 that the organization of the party can, if it is willing to exert its full strength to strengthen the membership of the party. Therefore, the first step toward restoring confidence in the party is to restore confidence in its organization.

Urges Organization for Primaries.
"This can be done in the various states, at the primaries of 1918, and organization for the primaries must begin soon. In California the Republican state organization is now in firm place control of the Progressive election by a convention elected for that purpose by the Republican voters. In other states this has been partly accomplished. There may be other

Supremacy Among "Talking Machines" is not Claimed for

THE NEW EDISON

The New Edison is not a "talking machine." It does what no talking machine can do; what no talking machine manufacturer would dare attempt to do.

The New Edison has been compared in public, before 300,000 music lovers, with such great artists as Marie Rappold, Anna Case, Julia Heinrich, Alice Verlet, Christine Miller, Arthur Middleton and Thomas Chalmers, as well as a dozen others. Thus it was proven, beyond all question, that the living voices of these great artists cannot be detected from the New Edison's Re-Creation of them. Remember that the artists stood beside the New Edison and sang in direct comparison with it, and that the audiences could not distinguish the artists voices from the New Edison's Re-Creation of those same voices.

The NEW EDISON

accomplishes Mr. Edison's ambition to re-create all forms of music with such literal perfection that the original cannot be told from the Re-Creation.

Come To Our Store This Week
We want you to hear the re-created voices of Zenatello and Rappold, and the masterly bowing of Spalding and Flesch.

STEVENSON BROS.

WARNING—Edison Re-Creations cannot be played on Talking Machines without DAMAGE, nor without inferior musical results.

CHANDLER SIX

(F. O. S. CLEVELAND)

Chandler Price Will Advance December First

THE price of the famous Chandler Six will be advanced December 1st, 1916, and the present Chandler Model in every essential way will be continued for the forthcoming season. We have always listed the Chandler car at the lowest possible price consistent with manufacturing costs involved in producing this high grade automobile.

We had hoped earlier this season in spite of advancing costs of material to be able to continue the present $1295 price. But conditions in the industry have now come to a point where this is impossible.

Our production costs today are fifteen and one-quarter percent (15¼%) higher than one year ago.

Our profit margin per car has always been small. And the price must, therefore, be advanced to make compensation for increased production charges.

You may purchase your Chandler car now with the assurance of a marked saving in purchase price, and with the equally important assurance that your Chandler car, purchased now, will be up-to-date next spring.

Distinctly superior Chandler features include the "Marvelous Motor" which with minor refinements from time to time has distinguished the Chandler car for four years past and which will be continued in the forthcoming series for next season; genuine Bosch high tension magnetos, the highest priced and most efficient form of ignition; Gray & Davis separate unit electric starting and lighting system; silent chain drive for motor shafts; solid cast aluminum motor base, extending from frame to frame; spiral bevel gear rear axle; and the most beautiful of all modern body designs.

Debate, Resolve—That Equal Suffrage should be extended in every state. Affirmative, Norine Lawrence. Kathleen Vensil, Negative, Harry Blair and Arthur Emman.

There was a bill in the legal proceedings yesterday, partly owing to the absence of W. S. Merrill from the city on local matters. In his absence City Solicitor, Milo Ely, partially prepared a complaint to the State Public Utilities Commission which will be filed today. This complaint will set forth that the Coshocton Gas company is a public utility, operating under a franchise from the state; that under its franchise certain specific things are required of it, one of them being that of furnishing gas to the city of Coshocton; that it has failed to furnish gas as stipulated; and that unless it forthwith does so that it be compelled to surrender its franchise.

As stated in yesterday morning's Tribune there was filed yesterday in common pleas court a petition entitled The State of Ohio on complaint of Milo C. Ely, City Solicitor, vs. The Coshocton Gas Co. The Buckeye State Gas & Fuel Co., The Central Ohio Gas & Electric Co., The Cities Service Co., H. L. Doherty & Co. and E. B. Smith, was filed in common pleas court Wednesday morning asking the court to issue bench warrants for the defendants and their officers or issue a writ requiring them to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt. Judge Glenn did not issue bench warrants, but issued an order requiring E. B. Smith, Manager of the Gas Company, to answer by Tuesday, December 15 at 9 A. M.

The petition as drawn by the city solicitor states in substance that on November 23, last, Judge Glenn granted a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from shutting off the gas and requiring the Coshocton Gas Co. to furnish artificial gas, in case of a temporary cessation of the supply of natural gas, at the price stipulated in the franchise ordinance passed September 5, 1902; that on December 12th the defendants violated the injunction by shutting off the gas. The Ohio Fuel Supply Co., which is understood to have shut off the gas, is not named as one of the defendants. The Coshocton Gas Co. still owns the artificial gas plant in the northwest end of the city, but it is understood that it could not be placed in operation until a large amount of equipment was installed.

Court is Criticized.

The action of Judge Glenn in holding a private conference with the manager and attorney for the gas company Tuesday and in refusing to set an earlier date for hearing the contempt proceedings instituted by attorneys for the city against the gas company officials was the occasion for some criticism yesterday.

He stated last night that Messrs. Pomerene and Smith came to his office Tuesday afternoon and that Mr. Pomerene declared the gas pressure was low and that he did not know the cause, but that he would do his best to have the shortage remedied. He said that Mr. Pomerene immediately got in touch with other gas companies by telephone and telegraph and asked them to do what they could to help relieve the situation here.

He said all the replies, however, were to the effect that they could not furnish gas to Coshocton because they were meeting the same conditions in other cities. Judge Glenn also said that other attorneys over the state were called into consultation for their opinions in the matter. "I cannot tell you a great deal of what was said," stated Judge Glenn, "because I did not pay close attention to the conversation and I really haven't much of a nose for news."

As to deferring the hearing of the contempt proceedings until next Tuesday, Judge Glenn said the journal entry had not been prepared and that the defendants were entitled to time for the preparation of their answer.

Want Pottery at Concord.

As a result of the shut-down at the Pope-Gosser Pottery company a conference was held at the offices of that company yesterday between the officers and a committee of business and professional men from New Concord. A deal was discussed for the establishment of a plant in the Muskingum county town to operate in conjunction with the local concern.

Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of Muskingum college, Prof. L. J. Graham, secretary-treasurer of the college, W. G. Gault, S. B. Henderson, Frank Anderson, J. T. Anderson and H. O. Trace, composed the committee from New Concord.

The visit to this city is the result of a mass meeting of the citizens of New Concord, held two months ago, for the purpose of securing new industries, and in addition to the pottery deal, there are several others pending. The exact nature of the proposition to the Pope-Gosser Co. is not given out, but they propose to establish a plant in New Concord, to operate in conjunction with the Coshocton pottery.

When interviewed Wednesday, J. P. Carlinz, president of the Pope-Gosser China Co., stated that there is nothing definite to give out regarding the proposed deal, but that in such events as the present shortage in gas, which causes a complete shut down at the pottery, the outlook is discouraging in the extreme, and that a decisive move of some kind must necessarily be made.

The Pope-Gosser Co. owns the land between their building and the corner of Fifteenth and Main streets. They have partly formulated plans for enlarging their plant, and have been filling in the low ground southeast of the pottery. However, unless the city and the company are able to cooperate more satisfactorily such a step would not be advisable, according to Mr. Carlinz's statement.

The winners of the recent shooting match held in Roscoe will be entertaining the losers with an oyster supper in the town hall Friday evening.

The German embassy had no further advice on the terms of the central governments, but it was freely admitted that term had purposely been omitted from the chancellor's speech and the note because the sole purpose was to propose a conference on terms and carefully avoid advancing any which might be made the basis of a refusal.

Among the entente diplomats no attempt was made to disguise their apprehension that President Wilson, transmitting the German proposal, might make some move toward mediation. At the same time it was said such an offer would interfere seriously with the plans of the allies. Its effect upon the peace negotiations in the allied countries also was taken into consideration in that connection.

The president has no close adviser, Colonel E. M. House, as White House guest. He set for him yesterday when word came of Germany's offer to discuss peace terms, which has greatly stirred the president, whose first earnest desire is to end in peace the present bloodshed.

The attitude of the Teutonic embassies in this city today was one of only slight hopefulness. The news from London, Paris and Bordeaux was admittedly unwelcome.
